Re: Sokolove v. City of Rehoboth Beach, Delaware

Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed is a copy of the Verified Complaint, plaintiffs' Motion For Temporary Restraining Order and Plaintiff's Memorandum In Support of Motion For Temporary Restraining Order that I am filing contemporaneously herewith. These papers ask the Court to grant plaintiffs' immediate injunctive relief enjoining defendants from further violating plaintiffs' First Amendment right to free speech. In particular, defendants have violated and continue to violate plaintiffs' constitutional rights by removing plaintiffs' campaign signs - but not the signs of other candidates - that plaintiffs erect in the City of Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. Plaintiffs are erecting their campaign signs in connection with an August 13, 2005 municipal election in which the electorate will select the next Mayor and two City Commissioners for Rehoboth Beach.

Given the nature of defendants' conduct and the fact the election is just days away, we respectfully request that the Court handle this case on an emergency basis and that these papers be forwarded to the first available District Court Judge so that plaintiffs' Motion For Temporary Restraining Order can be scheduled immediately for a hearing.
